

Data Protection Notice.

The Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulations came into force on 25th May 2018 requiring organisations to be accountable and transparent about their handling of data.

Hastings Bexhill and District Freshwater Angling Association (H.B&D.F.A.A.) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. The basis for the Regulation is that if personal data is collected and held, H.B&D.F.A.A. are under a legal obligation to treat that data with respect and to be responsible for its security.

What personal data we hold on you

In so far as HB&DFAA are concerned the only data collected is that which is freely given by each person on their application form to apply for membership. The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, postal address, email address, phone number and gender.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your personal data is to be able to administer your membership, including communicating with you if necessary, such as award of prizes etc.

The data collected is the minimum that is necessary to identify the persons and their membership status, where they may be contacted and details of how the Association may do so; details of children under the age of 12 (Name and date of birth) that parents wish to include on their own membership is also provided.

Who we share your personal data with

No data whatsoever is/will be passed to any third party without the members specific written consent.

How long we hold your personal data

At its Committee meeting on 13th March 2018 it was agreed that no members data would be retained for longer than 16 months, to accommodate later renewals, after which the data would be deleted from the computer record. Additionally, all of the paper application forms would also be destroyed.

Your data is not processed for any further purposes other than those detailed in this policy.
